

An Introduction to the Teaching of the 2017 A Level Mathematics (First Year)

A two day course focusing on increasing subject knowledge and providing ideas and resources for teaching first year A level Mathematics

The Further Mathematics Support Programme

The areas covered in Day one will be:

- Algebra and Functions
- Coordinate Geometry
- Differentiation
- Mechanics

The areas covered in Day two will be:

- Logarithms and Exponentials
- Trigonometry
- Integration
- Statistics

The course is suitable for teachers who are about to start teaching the 2017 Mathematics A level (First Year) for the first time and would like to increase their subject knowledge.

Course leaders

Jean Smith

FMSP Area Coordinator

Yvonne Croasdaile

FMSP Associate

Day 1 Wednesday 12th July

Day 2 Autumn Term (date tbc)

Longcroft School and Sixth Form College

Burton Road

Beverley

HU17 7EJ

Course aims and description

- To increase subject knowledge and deepen understanding of key concepts
- To provide effective strategies for teaching the new 2017 specification in an engaging way

Course fees

Cost: £100 for registered school (£200 for unregistered schools) Lunch included

Deadline: 26th May 2017

To book a place on this course please use the link for our online booking system

<https://goo.gl/forms/lgFsNCwFcnRQRW1I3>

For further enquires contact Jean Smith

jeansmith@furthermaths.org.uk