

UCL KS5 Mathematics Network

Large Data Sets for the 2017 Maths A Level Thursday, 02 November 2017, 4.30pm – 6pm

Registration and refreshments from 4pm

The network sessions are free of charge

At this meeting:

Keith Proffitt (MEI) will lead a session with a brief overview of the changes in the statistics content of the new Mathematics A-level and offering strategies for using technology to work with Large Data Sets with your students.

These questions will be considered:

- What are large data sets?
- How are they incorporated into assessment?
- How could they be used as a teaching resource?
