Teaching Core Mathematics

A professional development day for teachers of Core Mathematics

Hosted at Wellsway School, Keynsham

17 October 2018, 10:00-15:30

Tom Rainbow (AMSP Core Maths Coordinator) will lead a professional development day on the teaching of Core Maths.

These questions will be considered during the day:

- How best to approach the teaching of Core Maths?
- Why is an approach that is likely to be different to those used at GCSE or A level required?
- How can a department best be set up for the teaching of Core Maths?

Course aims:

- To consider approaches to teaching Core Maths and how these might differ from GCSE or A-Level
- To provide teachers with an opportunity to discuss teaching Core Maths
- To give teachers time to work on classroom activities for Core Maths

Venue: Wellsway School, Chandag Road, Keynsham, Bristol BS31 1PH

Course/event fees and application:

This course is free for teachers in state-funded schools thanks to DfE funding.
